

FIP for me was about conversations. Having the chance to talk to so many different people from so many different places and learn as much as I could about them in such a short period of time was a once in a lifetime experience.

KAREN REYES

