

When I think of FIP, I think of good conversations, fun activities, and amazing people. The pictures I chose, show these conversations in the yard, the trivia night and the FIP talent show. Through these events, I got to know the international freshmen better, and most important, I realized that I was not the only one who was excited but also a bit nervous about moving to the US.

LISA VAN DER SLUJIS

